

Major General (Ret.) Terrill K. Moffett

Major General Moffett is a graduate of the United States Military Academy (West Point). He served as an Airborne Infantry Officer and Armor Officer, and is a graduate of the Infantry Officer Basic Course and the Airborne School at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Major General Moffett's military career spanned 40 years in the Army, Army Reserve, and the Mississippi Army National Guard. He commanded at every level from Platoon Leader to Tank Battalion Commander to Division Commander, having served in the 155th Armored Brigade, the 25th Infantry Division, the 4th Infantry Division, the 91st Division, and the 104th Division.

Major General Moffett was an honor graduate of the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He completed United States Army War College as a Harvard Fellow. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from West Point, a Master of Arts degree from the University of Hawaii, and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Mississippi.

Major General Moffett was promoted to Brigadier General in 1999 and Major General in 2003. He was the Commanding General of the Troop Command Mississippi National Guard, the Deputy Commanding General of the 91st Division in California, and Commanding General of the 104th Division in Vancouver, Washington. He retired in 2007.

His awards and decorations include the Mississippi Commendation Medal, the Mississippi Magnolia Medal, the Mississippi Magnolia Cross, the Global War on Terrorism Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, and the Army Distinguished Service Medal.

Major General Moffett is the owner of Moffett Law Firm, PLLC, with offices in Tupelo and Amory, Mississippi. He served as Tupelo City Prosecutor for ten years. He is admitted to practice law in Mississippi and Alabama, the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Mississippi and the Northern District of Alabama, the Mississippi and Alabama Supreme Courts, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. He lives in Tupelo, Mississippi with his wife Rita. They have one daughter, Tara Leigh Dowden, married to Dr. Landon Dowden, and three grandchildren, Arabella, Adalaide, and Adoniram Dowden.

Major General Moffett is the Founder and owner of Moffett Leadership Institute and has conducted leadership and ethics training with numerous military forums throughout the United States, Nigeria and Rwanda. He studied Municipal Policing at Harvard University.