

US 2nd RANGERS INFANTRY BATTALION OF ST. LOUIS

The U.S. 2nd Ranger Infantry Battalion St. Louis, Inc., is a non-profit WWII re-enactment unit that is dedicated to preserving the military history and veterans of the United States Armed Forces. The Unit endeavors greater authenticity in the presentation of activities and strives to foster greater interest in the history of WWII; in particular, Ranger history, by educating the general public through active public relations.

The group portrays D Company of the U.S. 2nd Ranger Battalion because of the courageous sacrifices these men made during WWII and their link to the birth of modern U.S. Special Forces. They do not have any actual affiliation with the current U.S. Army Rangers. However, as a living history re-enacting unit, they hold themselves to the highest personal standards of safety and authenticity in their portrayal of U.S. military personnel.

Preserving history by travelling to public events, staging mock battles, including the River Battle and WWII Weekend; and respectfully portraying WWII soldiers during said battle reenactments, living history events, educational displays; and by collecting, preserving, and displaying memorabilia of the era including uniforms, equipment, and vehicles from the US, British, Soviet, Canadian, and German forces is their mission.
